BURNS WEEKEND AT THE BARONY CASTLE HOTEL, PEEBLES

FRIDAY 25th—MONDAY 28th JANUARY 2019

This year we travel to a new venue for our Burns Weekend: the 3 star Mercure Barony Castle Hotel, in the village of Eddleston, Nr. Peebles.

Our programme, as ever, is super : travelling north on Friday we head for a lunchtime arrival in the city of Carlisle. Time here to browse this border city before moving further north to Peebles and our hotel, the Barony Castle. The hotel offers quality fayre and accommodation, along with a swimming pool and light leisure facilities. It is home to the great Polish Map of Scotland. Tonight we have evening dinner followed by light entertainment.

After breakfast on Saturday our included excursion takes us first for a visit to Rosslyn Chapel, then on to Ocean Terminal at Leith for a lunch break and a visit to the Royal Yacht Britannia. Returning in the mid-afternoon to the hotel. Dinner this evening follows the piping and address to the haggis and is a Scottish-themed dinner. Evening entertainment follows with a ceilidh in the ballroom.

A lazy Sunday breakfast and then off to the city of Edinburgh. We include a short city tour then free time in the capital.

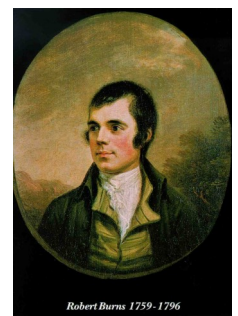

Homeward bound on Monday, a short browse around Peebles then south via the Grey Mare's Tail and Moffat.

Cost £299.00 per person

Single supplement £70.00
